Exercise 02

Dialogue Practice

Read the dialogue aloud with your teacher.

Jess seems to not be feeling good. Jane asks her why.

Jane

Jess, how are you today? You look quite ill.

Jess

Of course! I could not miss such a big match. I was really excited, and I couldn't do anything but to stare closely at his every move.

Jane

Me, too. Where did you watch it?

Jess

At home. I was so absorbed in watching the match that I totally forgot to eat my breakfast and lunch. I didn't even notice my son was making a cup noodle and eating it alone. Where did you watch it?

Jane

I watched it at a boxing café, cheering for Vitali with all my friends in a boxing fan club.

Jess

Wow, I know you really love combat sports, especially boxing. I think he deserves all the support from all Ukrainians because he is a true champion.

Jane

Yes, and the pride he gave to all Ukrainians must be overwhelming.

Jess

Exactly! I am sure that people all over Ukraine will give him the warmest welcome to celebrate his victory.

Jane

Definitely!

Check your understanding:

- Who watched Vitali Klitschko's match at the boxing café?
- Why did Zach forget to eat?
- Why did Matt and Zach think that Klitschko deserves all the support from Ukrainians?

Exercise 03

Role Play

Role-play the following situation with your teacher.

Situation:

- Your brother wants to become a professional boxer.
- Your teacher will be your brother.
- Tell him your opinion or give him advice on how to achieve his dream.

Exercise 04

Discussion

- 1) What causes your nose to turn red?
- 2) What do you do to recover from a cold?
- 3) How can you tell you've got a cold?
- 4) What do you usually do when your family member catches a cold?
